The Conditions of Public Auction Sale

1. All bids to be per lot as numbered in the catalogue.

2. All coins offered in this catalogue are genuine and are faithfully described. Errors will be corrected, but coins can ONLY be returned with written permission of the cataloguer.

3. The highest bidder to be the buyer. All bidders must have established credit with the cataloguer, or bids will not be executed, unless advance deposit of 25% of their bids is sent, or first-class references. (Deposits will be refunded to unsuccessful bidders.)

4. No charge for executing bids, but postage and insurance will be paid by buyer.

5. Collectors desiring further information about the sale are urged to write the cataloguer.

6. No unlimited bids at this sale. You must state maximum you are willing to pay, but you may be successful for less if public competitive bidding permits.

7. Lots will be on exhibition one week from June 5th to date of sale at 37 South 18th St., Philadelphia 3, Pa.

8. No lots will be delivered during intermission or while sale is in progress.

9. Lots may be sent in advance of sale for 24 hour inspection to responsible persons upon payment of registered mail costs both ways. No lots can be sent the week of June 5th.

10. Purchasers must make prompt payment after sale.

The collection has specimens dating back 2800 B.C., as noted in LaCouperie. Also included are amulets. The largest specimens are cast bronze of the Tien Ming Dynasty. Denominations vary from one cash to the one hundred cash. The largest razor money measures over seven inches.

The entire collection consisting of 922 pieces was assembled by an imperial Manchu nobleman prior to 1875 and was considered of exceptionally fine quality representing a numismatic history of China and areas of Chinese influence. The collection came to this country through diplomatic channels and has never heretofore been offered for sale. It is considered an excellent value at $500.00. The condition throughout the collection is very fine as the collection was assembled primarily for exhibition.
